Thomas Pasquier works as a senior associate in the tax law department of our Geneva office. After gaining professional experience in banking and in the forensic department of a consulting firm, Thomas Pasquier was admitted to the bar in the canton of Geneva in 2017. He is also a certified tax expert since 2023. Thomas specializes in Swiss and international tax law, for both individuals and corporate entities. His expertise includes tax advice to investment funds and companies at all stages of their development. He also advises entrepreneurs and private clients on all aspects of their tax affairs: relocation to Switzerland, philanthropic activities, real estate investments, business transfers and estate and inheritance planning.
